8. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

9. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the twelfth session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 5. Review of developments relevant to the work of the Committee

10. Under this item, the Committee will be provided with information on action taken pursuant to recommendations adopted by the Committee at its previous sessions.

11. Additionally, the Rapporteur will inform the Committee about developments relevant to its work that have occurred since the preceding session. The Committee will also be briefed about developments relating to other human rights monitoring bodies.

Item 6. General discussion on "The child and the media"

12. In accordance with rule 75 of its provisional rules of procedure, the Committee decided, at its eleventh session, that a day of general discussion would be held during its thirteenth session devoted to the question of the child and the media, and agreed to invite interested bodies and agencies and media representatives to participate in that discussion, which will take place on Monday, 7 October 1996. Invitations were dispatched by the Secretariat to relevant organizations and individuals in June 1996.

Item 7. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

13. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion of ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 8. Methods of work of the Committee, including guidelines for the preparation of periodic reports

14. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance, and the urgent procedure, as well as the guidelines for periodic reports to be submitted by States parties as from 1997.

15. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/40/Rev.4). It will also have before it, in relation to the guidelines for periodic reports, an informal note by the Secretariat providing a summary of previous discussion on the reporting guidelines during the twelfth session, as well as various contributions by the members.

Item 9. Future meetings of the Committee

16. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 10. Other matters

17. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.
